Condition of Eligibility for Membership

We agree to abide by the bylaws, dues and membership policies of HPBA: As a result of paying annual membership dues to Hearth, Patio & Barbecue Association (HPBA) and Oregon Hearth, Patio & Barbecue Association (OHPBA) I hereby certify that we have selected the appropriate membership category, have paid the appropriate level of annual dues for this company, and upon request will provide verification of sales and/or a notarized letter attesting to membership classification and dues category for this company. This company agrees to fully abide by all HPBA membership policies and practices including, but not limited to, all HPBA policies and practices regarding exhibiting at, participating in, and attending HPBA's annual Hearth, Patio & Barbecue EXPO, including the following: Events in the nature of an exhibition of products, other than in EXPO exhibit booth, whether hosted by a vendor or by a retailing entity or by a distributor customer of hearth products, are prohibited at any time during the days of EXPO education and exhibition. EXPO exhibitors may not have products on display at events attended by their dealers, other than EXPO exhibit booth, unless they obtain a variance from HPBA's EXPO Committee for a very narrow purpose. Manufacturers or other vendors who are not exhibiting at the EXPO also agree that they will not host events as set forth above at any time during the days of the EXPO education and exhibition.

Description of Categories:

The Oregon Hearth, Patio & Barbecue Association represents and promotes the interests of the hearth, patio and barbecue products industries. Hearth products include fireplaces, stoves, decorative and functional accessories, fuels and all other hearth related products.

Hearth, Patio & Barbecue Association (HPBA) membership is available to manufacturers and distributors of any product and services sold through the hearth, HVAC, casual furniture, or barbecue distribution network and to those that manufacture or distribute any products promoted at HPBA's annual trade show. Companies must join OHPBA/HPBA in the membership category that represents the largest proportion of their business.

Note: For U.S. Federal income tax purposes membership dues may be deductible as business expenses, not as charitable contributions. The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 requires OHPBA to inform each member that an estimated 10% of dues will be allocable for lobbying expenditures as defined by the Act and therefore are not deductible as business expenses.

Manufacturers: (contact HPBA directly at 703-522-0086). Any company that manufactures, brands or imports appliances, fuel or any other hearth-related products sold or distributed through the hearth, patio/casual furniture, or barbecue distribution network, or those that manufacture any product promoted at HPBA's annual trade show.
